The celebration will end Monday night with a banquet in the Bishop's honor at the assembly rooms of the Addemy of Music.

At this banquet the most eminent dignitaries of the Catholic Church in America and prominent mon of Brookiyn of all shades of religious belief will be present. Cardinal Gibbons, Archbishops Corrigan and Ryan and Bishop Kean will reply to toasts.

The Bishop will be the recipient of many beautiful presents as souvenirs of the event. The most beautiful and supporprise gift which will be made to the Bishop is a splendid chalice of solid gold, ten and a balf inches hish, with a choriumor cover to match. This is the gift of the Sisters of Mercy.

Other presents are a set of brevaries in four volumes and the costlict bindings, a Rooman volumes and the costlict bindings a Rooman volumes and the costlict bindings. hurting his back and receiving internal injures.

He died at St. Joseph's Hospital.

The other known dead are: Anna Cummings, Bridget Doyle and Rose Schwarz, all domestics at the hotel. These persons lumped and their bodies were recovered.

It is now feared that the hodies of Mary Padden and Mary Doyle, servants, are in the rulins, and they will be ding for.

It was thought yesterday that they were accounted for, but a more careful investigation by the hotel authorities shows that they are missing.
